Local Intelligence.

The galoot Dooner will please pardon us for omitting extended mention of him as our space is too precious to waste upon such an obscure and despised being. He is publicly gangrened.

QUARTERMASTER LEE offers 236,523 lbs. of corn for sale to the highest bidder on December 1. For terms, see posters.

NICE sweet potatoes would find a ready market here.

LT. SILVA is about and will report for duty ere long. Glad to so note it.

Number of interesting articles crowded out. Press of political matter ends this week.

The Governor met Mowry and his man Brady within ten miles of Wickenburg on the 26th ult. It is understood they will be on exhibition in Prescott Nov. 8.

H. OTT and John W. Sweney returned from the Gila settlements on Wednesday, and report a most genial feeling thereaway against Brady, and very few Ourryites.

It is very directly reported here that there has lately been a large vein of ore, worth $70 per ton, struck in the Vulture mine at Wickenburg. Good.

JOSEPH PIENSON's train arrived from Terrenati, Mexico, on Wednesday, with 15,000 pounds flour for Lord & Williams, and Andy Sheen's train is daily expected from Hooper, Whiting & Co.'s at Arizona city, loaded with goods for the same firm.

THE San Diego Bulletin of last Saturday says that within two weeks over 100 tons of freight had been forwarded from that city to Arizona.

The Union of the 27th ultimo says the train of Don Juan Fernandez had arrived there.

JOHN W. SWENEY brings the sad report to town that J. W. Swilling, of Phenix, is insane. For months past he has been afflicted with an internal swelling in his head. It is with real regret that we pen this item.

Gov. BASHFORD arrived home on Wednesday, and reports everything appearing well at all points for Mc Cormick, and he noted the disposition of the people with great caution.

THE front to A. & L. Zeckendorf's store is being gayly improved. It is to represent brown stone, the blocks of which are to be separated by a pointing of white lime mortar.

AID FOR THE FRENCH.—We are requested by the Vicar (Father Francisco Journean) to say that a subscription list is in his hands for the relief of all wounded soldiers of the French army, and all persons sympathizing with the cause, are invited to step into his residence and subscribe what they feel able.

TUESDAY last was All-Saints-Day, upon which there is a general celebration of all the saints. The Sisters held no school upon that day—which was mainly spent in the usual devotional rites.

RESTAURANT FOR MEN AND BEASTS.—McKinnide & Carpenter keep in good order and well supplied with every needful article, a restaurant, saloon and stable at Phenix on Salt River. They have pleasant sleeping apartments,—in short, are prepared to fitly lodge men and beasts, at living rates, and traveling people will fare well by stopping with them when passing that way.

ASSISTANT ADJUTANT GENERAL Smedberg of the military division of the Pacific, has placed us under obligations for photographic maps of southeastern Arizona, and of the Pima reservation as per the late extended boundaries. General Smedberg has many times and oft before extended us valuable favors.

DEPARTED.—Dr. Marsh, collector of customs for the District of Paso del Norte, left for El Paso last Tuesday. He had an escort of eight men from Ft. Bayard, but a report of Indian sign to the eastward reaching here on the morning of his departure, his escort was enlarged to twenty. While here he made a thorough examination of the sub office in Tucson under James E. Baker Esq., and found everything right pertaining to it.

In our item last week, we erred in stating that he brought $15,000 in coin for deposit here: the sum should have been given at $8,000, the balance having been put in another Depository.

Exact figuring exhibits the gratifying fact that during the first year of Doctor Marsh's administration of the office, the District yielded a net revenue of over $16,000, in contrast to the previous year that gave $2,400 less than office expenses, a difference of, in round numbers, $20,000 in coin in favor of the United States.

NEW WAY TO RAISE THE WIND.—Give a birthday party, invite your friends, and go round the next day and modestly ask each of your guests for $5 or $10 for the honor you conferred upon him.

Will the whippersnapper of the bogus Tucson Democracy keep this in mind and thereby possibly succeed in picking up an honest penny or two? "So-co fly."

IMMIGRANTS.—On Tuesday last, eight families from Texas passed through this town for the neighborhood of Los Angeles. They had nine wagons, 23 yoke of oxen and three horses. A liberal sprinkling of youth was along.

NO JUNK-DEALERS HERE.—There was no market here for Dooner at $3,000—his own price. According to Mowry, ALL the Arizonan material will be offered "for sale to the highest bidder immediately" after next Tuesday, but there being no junk-dealers in Arizona, it is feared the whole outfit will bring "nichts." Worthless Dooner!

THAT superlative bilk and bummer, Sylvester Mowry, is playing the clapperon to Brady throughout the Territory, and they are acting and speaking in concert. Is there any doubt that Brady represents Mowry, and is pledged to execute as far as lies in his power, Mowry's commands? Voters who think there is, don't know Sylvester.

PAYMASTER MORROW, when convinced that he was hauling about and feeding an ingraind ingrate and sponger in the person of the honorable Sylvester Mowry, managed to leave him by the wayside. Brady then chose the discarded lekapittie for his monthpiece. "Birds of a feather flock together." Isn't Brady pledged to Mowry, eh?

CAPTAIN Charles Mowry arrived early in the week from Guaymas, the place chosen by him for a residence, and where his family now resides. He precedes 130 wagons loaded with over 600 tons government freight. The captain has a large government freight contract, and is a wide awake, thorough business worker. We admire his pluck and wish him prosperity, but will ever fight the sending of freight via Guaymas. If these 130 teams were now on the Gila route, the station keepers and traders would be daily benefited. Our motto is, to first help Arizona people, then our neighbors without our borders.

WEATHER has been charming all week.

Police Matters.

A reporter handed us these items: Oct. 22, before his honor Judge Meyers, appeared Jesus Olvedo and his better half, who being in the blissful state of inebriety and the madman smelling of the wrong bottle, Jesus thought her olfactory organs were congested and applied his cupping apparatus for her relief, not failing in the operation. Fined costs and reprimanded.

On 24, John Ryanna, under the power of 40-rod whisky, imagined he was at Donnybrook Fair, and for a wrong display of ugly weapons was sent to Brady's hotel for five months.

M. B. Duffield, on 28th., applied for a warrant to search the premises of the lovely Donna Jesus Uteros for certain missing property. Nothing found but oilo and rawhide.

On 29th., William Wesley, lately from the mild city of Hermosillo, believing he had arrived near the Arctic circle altho' he had blankets enough, he appropriated another pair, thereby depriving the lovely Senorita Guadalupe of a great amount of comfort, took up his quarters for three months, merely to get regular exercise to keep from freezing.

On Oct. 30, inquest upon the body of Augustine Shay, a native of Ireland, aged 25 years, who committed suicide by cutting his throat at Camp Lowell, on the 29th of October.

SPASS Hermanns, a watchful Teuton, thinking that he needed watching, notwithstanding he had the necessary amount of said article applied to him, insisted upon appropriating three more watches, they not being his property, and for former good conduct, got six months with a watch and chain presented to him upon his entrance to his new quarters.

A military post is ordered established in the Pinal Mountains, some 50 miles north of Grant, to be called "Infantry Camp." Captain Netterville, who is in town, received the order.

Mail for the East will positively close as follows: Sunday nights at 9 P. M., and Thursday nights at 4 P. M. C. H. LORD, P. M.
